

CAMP DIRECTOR IS INTRODUCED

Announce Plans for Six
10-Day Periods at Pleasant Lake.

Miss Mary Catherine Anderson, recently appointed camp director for Tannadoonah, summer camp of the local Camp Fire Girls' council at Pleasant lake, Edwardsburg, Mich., was introduced to the members of the Guardians' association at their regular meeting Wednesday evening in Camp Fire headquarters, and in turn announced the camp counselors whom she has chosen with the aid of her advisory committee.

Miss Doris Longbrake, acting executive secretary of the organization, will serve as secretary to Miss Anderson, and counsellors will be Miss Evelyn Larkin, physical education director at the Benjamin Harrison school; Miss Irene Harlin, guardian of the So Be Hi group of the Senior High school, who will act as her assistant; Miss Mary Agnes Harris, assistant guardian of the Ahsonzongs of the First Methodist Episcopal church, who will be in charge of handcraft; Miss Thelma Avery, who will supervise the study of nature lore, and Mrs. Alice Martin, cook at the Y. W. C. A. residence, who will serve in that capacity at camp. Campcraft directors will be three of the counsellors, probably Miss Avery, Miss Harlin and Miss Harris.

The camp season will be divided into six 10-day periods, the first starting June 19, and one week-end period will be provided, July 21 and 22, for those who are unable to remain at Tannadoonah for a regular period.

During the meeting last evening Mrs. J. A. Holem, recently elected president of the association, announced her selections for permanent committees as follows: Executive committee, Mrs. Holem, Mrs. Ludlow, vice-president; Miss Ruth Simmons, secretary; Mrs. Frank Batson, treasurer, and Mrs. Edward Post, Mrs. Virginia Lakin and Miss Erva Bishop; hospitality committee, Mrs. Fay Hay, Mrs. Mary Stradley and Mrs. Mae Smith; program, Mrs. Edna Kuntz, Mrs. Bertha Palmer, Mrs. Cora Hennen and Mrs. Chloe Dunfee.

Miss Edith Kempthorne, national field secretary of the Camp Fire Girls' organization, with offices in New York city, will be in South Bend for several hours Friday.
